DETAILED ACTION

1. An examination of this application reveals that applicant is unfamiliar with patent prosecution procedure. While an inventor may prosecute the application, lack of skill in this field usually acts as a liability in affording the maximum protection for the invention disclosed. Applicant is advised to secure the services of a registered patent attorney or agent to prosecute the application, since the value of a patent is largely dependent upon skilled preparation and prosecution. The Office cannot aid in selecting an attorney or agent.

Applicant is advised of the availability of the publication "Attorneys and Agents Registered to Practice Before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office." This publication is for sale by the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 4-6 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. There is no antecedent basis for "said dollar mark," "said cents mark," "said exclamation point," "said question mark," and "said dual lightning bolt symbol(s)."

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Meehan.

Meehan discloses a license plate and indicia. Although Meehan does not disclose the specific indicia recited by Applicant, the recitation of different indicia does not patentably define over Meehan because it has been held that patentable novelty cannot be principally predicated on mere printed matter and arrangements thereof, but must reside basically in physical structure. In re Montgomery, 102 USPQ 248. Also, once the concept of indicia has been disclosed, the selection of specific indicia is not separately patentable because the selection of specific indicia is an obvious matter of choice in design.

6. Claims 6-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Shomron.

Shomron discloses a credit card and indicia. Although Shomron does not disclose the specific indicia recited by Applicant, the recitation of different indicia does not patentably define over Shomron because it has been held that patentable novelty cannot be principally predicated on mere printed matter and arrangements thereof, but must reside basically in physical structure. In re Montgomery, 102 USPQ 248. Also, once the concept of indicia has been disclosed, the selection of specific indicia is not separately patentable because the selection of specific indicia is an obvious matter of choice in design.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
